The 4-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Review of Meeting

October 24, 2017

By Dan Taylor for Jake Slagle

It was a picture perfect autumn Tuesday as Rotarians and guests gathered in the Pieces Room of the Hyatt for the weekly Rotary meeting. The alternate menu plan this week was the sandwich day featuring tasty ham or turkey and including squash soup etc. Prez Delores called the meeting to order; Dan Taylor led in the anthem and pledge; Walt Dent gave the invocation: guests were recognized and welcomed musically by four in tune Songbirds; Jesse Kessenger shared several interesting items of news and welfare; Sarge Ryan received dollars from errant and thankful Rotarians

Program Chair Karen Blake introduced our guest speakers Wendy Semet and Stephanie Felton of Middle Grades Partnership (MGP). Ms. Semet gave an interesting talk concerning the mission and activities of the organization MDG is a rigorous academic program for promising Baltimore City public and private middle school students. Together, students further develop their classroom skills in reading, writing and mathematics while breaking down socio-economic barriers through joint education and social opportunities. Our speakers then fielded perceptive questions from the floor

Karl Silex drew the lucky ticket in the 50/50 drawing but the lucky ace of clubs hid yet again.
